INDEX TO CONVERGENCE VOLUME XV, 1982

The Index of feature articles and major information reports is cross-referenced by subject and by author. Figures are issue number followed by page number.

SUBJECT INDEX

Health

Issue No. 2 was a Special Report on Adult Education and Primary Health Care

An Invitation to a Dialogue, Rajesh Tandon, Guest Editor 1–2

The Interlinkages Between Primary Health Care and Adult Education, Rajesh Tandon 3–12

Primary Health Care and Adult Education: Opportunities for the Joining of Forces, Socrates Litsios 14–21

Mobilization for Primary Health Care: Role of Adult Education, Marie-Thérèse Feurerstein 23–33

Adult Education Integrates Literacy, Health and Conscientization: The Mandar Story, T. Vijayendra 35–41

Adult Education Makes the Crucial Difference in Training and Mobilizing People, Mary Johnston 43–53

Health, Political Will and Participation: A Chinese Strategy, Susan Rifkin 55–59

Promoting Health Education Through Adult Education, Eileen Hornsey 60–68

A Participatory Methodology for Integrating Literacy and Health Education, Luis Maria Aller Atucha and Catherine Crone 70–80

Women in the Front Line of Health, Nita Barrow 82–84

A Bangladesh Experience in Education and Primary Health Care, Rezaul Haque 84–87

Health By the People: The Zambian Strategy 87–88

The Child as an Agent of Change 89–90

The Role of NGOs in Primary Health Care 92–3

****

The Participatory Imperative in Primary Health Care, Mary Racelis Hollnsteiner (3) 56–65

Literacy

Adult Literacy in Industrialized Countries (1) 74–76

Adult Education Integrates Literacy, Health and Conscientization, T.

Vijayendra (2) 35–41

A Participatory Methodology for Integrating Literacy and Health, Luis Maria Aller Atucha and Catherine D. Crone (2) 70–80

Mass Mobilization for Illiteracy Eradication in Iraq, Christopher J. Lucas (3) 19–26

Reflections on Creating a Literate Environment, Ruth Lazarus (3) 67–71

Nutrition/Food

The Nutrition Educator's Role in Access to Food, Wenche Barth Eide (1) 57–63

Obituary

A Legacy of Learning: Tribute to Roby Kidd, Margaret Gayfer (1) 65–73

Older Adults

Pre-Retirement Education Project in The Netherlands, Maria Van den (1) 76–77

Emergence of the Age of Aging (3) 80–82

Participation/Social Action

Participation as Pedagogy: Quality of Working Life and Adult Education, Edward Cohen-Rosenthal (1) 5–15

Participation in Non-Formal Education Projects: Some Possible Negative Outcomes (3) 6–17

Participatory Imperative in Primary Health Care, Mary Racelis Hollnsteiner (3) 56–65

A 'Back-to-Front' Project in Peru: Starting with the Local People, Ana Zabala (4) 44–51

Policy Issues

Ideology and Nation Building: Implications for Adult Education, Training and Employment, Rex Nettleford (1) 27–36

Primary Health Care and Adult Education: Opportunities for the Joining of Forces, Socrates Litsios (2) 14–21

Adult Education in Modern Greece, Marcie Boucouvalas (3) 28–35

Adult Education in the People's Republic of China, Mark Sidel (3) 37–46

Adult Education and Social Change: All-India Declaration on Priorities and Action (4) 38–43

Council of Europe Recommendations on Adult Education Policy (4) 69–71

Are Non-Governmental Organizations 'In'? Thom Kersteins (4) 61–65

Research

Some Critical Reflections on Participatory Research, Yehezkel Cohen (3) 77–80

Evaluation of Participatory Research in Developing Community Leadership Skills, Wazir-Jahan B. Karim (4) 52–60

Technology

The Communication Satellite as Educational Tool, Peter Long (1) 45–55

BBC Computer Literacy Project, Robert Salkeld (4) 19–25

Training

Exchange Visits: An Effective Way to Learning, Kamla Bhasin (1) 38–43

Training for Development in Mongolia, Miatavin Lhamsoursen (1) 79–80

Adult Education Makes the Difference in Training and Mobilization, Mary Johnston (2) 43–53

What Kind of Training for Women Farmers? Kathleen Mansfield Higgins (4) 7–18

Importance of Education for Change of Front-Line Workers and Villagers, Philip H. Coombs (4) 32–37

Women

Re-thinking Women and Development: The Case for Feminism, Anita Anand (1) 17–25

Women in the Front Line of Health, Nita Barrow (2) 82–84

Income-Generating Project Develops Skills of Swazi Women, Simanga Nxumalo (3) 48–54

Role of the Women's Movement in Literacy Campaigns: The Portugese Experience, Helen Neves (3) 73–76

What Kind of Training for Women Farmers? Kathleen M. Higgins (4) 7–18

Issues for Research and Training Related to Women, Bernardette Okure (4) 26–31

What Projects are Successful for Improving the Employment Conditions of Women? (4) 71–73

Worker's Education

Participation as Pedagogy: Quality of Working Life and Adult Education, Edward Cohen-Rosenthal (1) 5–15

AUTHOR INDEX

Anand, Anita Re-thinking Women and Development: The Case for Feminism (1) 17–25

Atucha, Luis Maria Aller and Catherine D. Crone A participatory Methodology for Integrating Literacy and Health Education in Honduras (2) 70–80

Barrow, Nita Women in the Front Line of Health (2) 82–84

Bhasin, Kamla Exchange Visits: An Effective Way to Learning (1) 38–43

Boucouvalas, Marcie Adult Education in Modern Greece (3) 28–35

Cohen, Yehezkel Some Critical Reflections on Participatory Research (3) 77–80

Cohen-Rosenthal, Edward Participation as Pedagogy: Quality of Working Life and Adult Education (1) 5–15

Coombs, Phillip H. Importance of Education for Change of Front-Line Workers and Villagers (4) 33–37

Crone, Catherine D., and Luis Maria Aller Atucha A Participatory Methodology for Integrating Literacy and Health Education in Honduras (2) 70–80

Eide, Wenche Barth The Nutrition Educator's Role in Access to Food (1) 57–63

Feurerstein, Marie-Thérèse Mobilization for Primary Health Care: Role of Adult Education (2) 23–33

Gayfer, Margaret A Legacy of Learning: Tribute to Roby Kidd (1) 65–73

Haque, Rezaul A Bangladesh Experience in Education and Primary Health Care (2) 84–87

Higgins, Kathleen Mansfield What Kind of Training for Women Farmers? (4) 7–18

Hornsey, Eileen Promoting Health Education Through Adult Education: Some British Experiences (2) 60–68

Hollnsteiner, Mary Racelis The Participatory Imperative in Primary Health Care (3) 56–65

Jamul, David A Micro-level View of Development Jargon (4) 74–75

Johnston, Mary Adult Education Makes the Difference in Training and Mobilizing People (2) 43–53

Karim, Wazir-Jahan B. Evaluation of Participatory Research in Developing Community Leadership Skills (4) 52–60

Kerstiens, Thoms Are Non-Governmental Organizations 'In'? (4) 61–65

Lazarus, Ruth Reflections on Creating a Literate Environment (3) 67–71

Lhamsoursen, Miatavin Training for Development in Mongolia (1) 79–80

Litsios, Socrates Primary Health Care and Adult Education: Opportunities for the Joining of Forces (2) 14–21

Long, Peter The Communication Satellite as Educational Tool (1) 45–55

Lucas, Christopher J. Mass Mobilization for Illiteracy Eradication in Iraq (3) 19–26

Nettleford, Rex Ideology and Nation Building: Implications for Adult Education, Training and Employment (1) 27–36

Neves, Helen Role of the Women's Movement in Literacy Campaigns: The Portugese Experience (3) 73–76

Nxumalo, Simanga Income-Generating Project Develops Skills of Swazi Women (3) 48–54

Okure, Bernardette Issues for Research and Training Related to Women (4) 26–31

Pigozzi, Mary Joy Participation in Non-Formal Education Projects: Some Possible Negative Outcomes (3) 6–17

Rifkin, Susan Health, Political Will and Participation: A Chinese Strategy for Total Development (2) 55–59

Salkeld, Robert BBC Computer Literacy Project (4) 20–25

Sidel, Mark Adult Education in the People's Republic of China (3) 37–46

Tandon, Rajesh An Invitation to A Dialogue (2) 1–2

Tandon, Rajesh The Interlinkages Between Primary Health Care and Adult Education (2) 3–12

Vijayendra, T. Adult Education Integrates Literacy, Health and Conscientization: The Mandar Story (2) 35–41

Zabala, Ana A 'Back-to-Front' Project in Peru: Starting with the Local People (4) 44–51